The Rumor Killer 1

Narrator : The Rumor Killer 1

It's getting dark, let's close our eyes

On a moonless night, an evil force is mounting to attack this village

Show up, Rumormonger

Launch your attack now

The sun rises, let's open our eyes

The Rumormonger has just launched the move of “Spreading Rumors” villagers start worrying about something bad may happen to their banks

Villages queue up at the bank to withdraw money immediately for fear that their bank will soon run out of cash and their savings will all be gone

Ah Chuen : I really worry about not getting my money back

Ah Po : Wait a second!

There's the “Deposit Protection Scheme” in Hong Kong

Even if there's a bank failure, eligible deposits are automatically protected by law and won't be gone!

Don't listen to the rumors!

Narrator : If it were you, what will you do?

A) Withdraw deposits from bank immediately

B) As deposits are protected by the “Deposit Protection Scheme”

I just stay calm and do nothing
