

Hong Kong Deposit Protection Board

“Protecting Ah Chuen: Choose One of Two - The Rumor Killer”

The Rumor Killer 2

Narrator : The Rumor Killer 2

In the previous episode, all the villagers believed that bank deposits are protected by the “Deposit Protection Scheme”

Hence, there was no withdraw-led chaos

Rumormonger’s wicked plan failed

When the villagers are guessing who Rumormonger is there comes another night

It’s getting dark, let’s close our eyes

On a dark and windy night

an evil force is mounting to attack the village once again

Show up, Rumormonger

Launch your attack now

The sun rises, let’s open our eyes

A lot of morning news are reporting about Hong Kong Dollar bank deposits being converted into other currency deposits overnight

The Rumormonger has just launched the move of “Swopping Currency” this time

turning the villagers’ Hong Kong Dollar bank deposits into other currencies

No more protection?!

Ah Chuen : Oh no! All my deposits have turned into US Dollars

Are they still protected by the “Deposit Protection Scheme”?

Ah Po : Don’t panic, even if our deposits have turned into foreign currencies they are still being protected!

Narrator : If it were you, what will you do?

A) Believe in Rumormonger (Foreign currency deposits are not protected)

B) Believe in Ah Po (Foreign currency deposits are also protected)
